

“Government that governs least, governs best.”

Thomas Jefferson

Vote for Freedom,
Vote Libertarian on November 3.

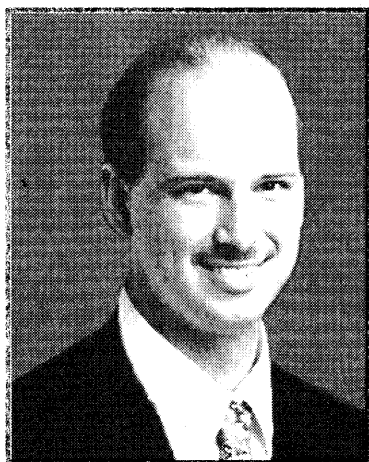

Libertarian Voter's Guide '98

If you believe:

in limited government,
fewer taxes,
less government spending, & more control of your life and your money by you...

Frank Germann
for Governor

Michael C. Strand
for Lt. Governor

Ruth A. Mason
for Attorney General

Kenneth Iverson
for Secretary of State

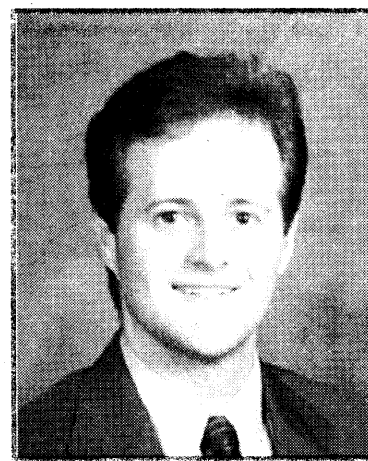

Bob Odden
for State Auditor

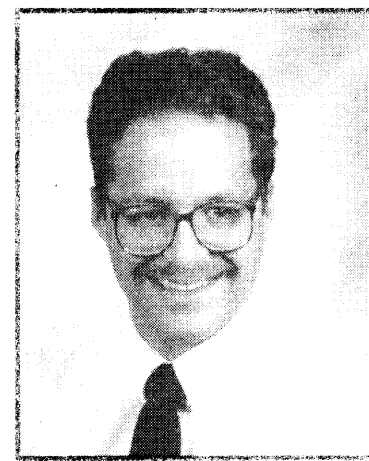

Mitchell P. Berg
for State Treasurer

Vote Libertarian Nov. 3

Michael A. Neitzel
for US House 4

Kevin Houston
for US House 5

Rich Osnes
for MN House 27B

Eric M. Johnson
for US House 6

Larry Fuhol
for US House 8

We invite you to visit our website:
<http://www.lpmn.org>

- Yes to repealing Minnesota's Income Taxes.
- Yes to objective shall-issue concealed carry reform.
- Yes to science-based environmental policies.
- Yes to local control of taxing and spending.
- Yes to parental and local control of schools.
- Yes to competition for public services, no monopolies.
- No to public subsidies for stadiums and businesses.
- No to new taxes and Yes to repealing old taxes.
- No to new spending schemes.
- No to state control of land-use.
- No to un-funded state or federal mandates.
- No to "Profile of Learning" annual education fads.

Libertarian Party of Minnesota

Twin Cities: 651-223-0995 Minnesota: 1-800-788-2660
Fax Phone: 612-874-6803 WWW Site: <http://www.lpmn.org>

Less Government Means More Freedom.

Prepared and paid for by the Libertarian Party of Minnesota. F0605 58074 Minneapolis MN 55458