Convention Highlights

KEYNOTE ADDRESS: Larry Dodge, '82 U.S. Senate and '84 Governor candidate of Montana. "Phoenix and the Future of Liberty."

BREAKFASTS: with Karl Hess, Gene Burns, Sam Steiger and Dick Boddie.

BERGLAND/LEWIS ROAST: to honor the LP's 1984 presidential and vice-presidential candidates. To include Sam Steiger, Ed Clark, Dick Boddie, Dale Pratt, Ruth Bennett, Steve Davis, Dave Walter and Fred Esser.

DEFENSE DEBATE: Ed Clark will moderate a debate featuring Robert Poole, Earl Ravenal, and Jeffrey Hummel.

RAWHIDE, THE 1880s TOWN: a hayride and steak fry outing under the stars; Western entertainment.

SATURDAY NIGHT BANQUET: a true Southwestern-style fiesta! Strolling mariachis, Indian hoop dancers, a humorous report on American politics by Tom Hazlett and an emboldening and inspiring video presentation. Patrick Henry will also make an appearance!

SPEAKERS, PANELS and WORKSHOPS: Over 50 Libertarians from across the country have been scheduled to address convention attendees on over 35 topics.

The Hyatt Regency will provide a "luggage room" for anyone staying past the Noon check-out time. See the convention registration table for information.
