The order of elections shall proceed as follows: Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer, Secretary, and members of the Judicial Committee.
- E. Convention Ballots. If ballots are printed, the names of all candidates must appear in alphabetical order by last name, and be of identical color, font type and size and formatting. All votes for a person must be conducted by secret ballot, which must include NOTA (None of the Above) even if only one person is nominated for the position. Voting may proceed by ranked choice voting or by ballot round voting. In elections for which there are multiple positions, the candidates receiving the most votes cast shall be elected with no additional balloting unless a tie-breaker vote is required. If a voice or hand vote is deemed appropriate, all credentialed voters must rise when voting unless all persons present are credentialed voters. Should NOTA receive a majority of the vote, nominees shall be kept on the ballot and nominations for that office shall be reopened. If NOTA receives the majority of votes on this subsequent balloting, the person currently holding an office or position shall remain in that office or position. A vacant position shall remain unfilled.
- G. Convention Election Determinations. Ballots shall be submitted to the election judge(s), who shall determine when all ballots are submitted, declare balloting closed, retire to count the votes, and announce the results. Each candidate may designate one observer to witness all phases of the vote counting.
- H. Convention Through Electronic Platform. If a convention is held on an electronic platform, Rules of Order shall be established that most closely align the available tools of the platform used with the intent of the provisions in this Article.
- I. Convention Proxies. No proxy votes shall be allowed at any convention.
- J. Convention Certifications of Election. The Chair and Secretary shall jointly issue and sign Certificates of Election and timely submit them, as required, to the LP, the Montana Secretary of State, and/or other government offices.

A. Location. Efforts shall be made to hold State Delegate Conventions at a physical location reasonably accessible to MTLP members. The size of a recognized County Affiliate's delegation is allocated in the following manner:

- 1) Each recognized County Affiliate is entitled to four (4) delegates. This shall include: a county chair, two (2) county affiliate members, and one (1) at-large MTLP member of that county's choosing.

The members from those counties shall elect delegates equal to no more than ten percent (10%) of registered MTLP members residing in those unaffiliated counties or one (1) whichever is higher. The regional representatives shall then transmit the elected delegate names to the credentialing committee.

At least six (6) weeks prior to the State Delegate Convention, the Chair shall appoint the following people to a Platform Committee: all current State Central Committee members who have answered in the affirmative that they are willing to serve; MTLP members who currently hold national, statewide, or districtwide political office; current candidates for partisan elections who have been MTLP members for at least one (1) year. The Chair shall further appoint a Platform Committee Interim Chair.

c. Platform Committee Report. The Platform Committee shall submit the recommended MTLP Platform, as proposed or as amended, to all MTLP members no less than one (1) week before a Delegate Convention.

The Platform Committee may also submit an explanatory report to all MTLP members within the same time frame. If 15 (15%) percent or more of the Platform Committee members disagree with a recommendation as to any plank(s), they may submit a joint minority opinion, which the Platform Committee shall likewise communicate to members.

c. Other Amendment Origins. Platform recommendations may be submitted by other MTLP bodies or by any credentialed delegate(s) at a Delegate Convention.

d. Platform Amendments. A two-thirds (2/3) majority of credentialed delegates at a State Delegate Convention must vote to approve any recommended Platform adoption or amendment(s). Voting members are solely the State Central Committee members. Such Conventions may be held through a digital platform. Other than the rules specified under Article VIII, Section 2, State Officer Conventions shall operate under the same rules as any meeting of the State Central Committee.

A. Notice. Bylaw amendments offered by the Judicial Committee, Executive Board, or State Central Committee shall be made available to all State Central Committee members no less than one (1) week prior to the Convention.

B. Voting. Amendments to the Bylaws as recommended by the Judicial Committee, the Executive Board, and/or members of the State Central Committee; and/or amendments or the creation of other governing documents must be passed by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the State Central Committee.

Section 5. Special Convention. The Chair may call a Special Convention at any time to address unforeseen issues, lack of diligence in holding conventions as outlined above, to fill a candidate vacancy, or for any other reason. Such Special Conventions may be held in a physical location or through an electronic platform that allows members reasonable access. Notice of such conventions may be reduced to four (4) days upon necessity and with cause. If the Chair fails to call a Special Convention in a timely manner, a majority of the Executive Board or a majority of the State Central Committee may call a Special Convention.

(MCA 13-10-327.)

A. Selection Process. The Chair shall notify all MTLP members of the vacancy, request self-nominations and nominations of other MTLP members, and call either a State Central Committee Meeting or Special Convention, time permitting. Notice requirements for any State Central Committee Meeting, Special Convention or Executive Board Meeting called to facilitate filling a vacancy may be shortened from the requirements of other provisions as necessary due to imposed time constraints.

(MCA 13-10-327) Each county may appoint its own county members of the Appointment Committee pursuant to its bylaws. Counties shall make efforts to appoint members based on a ratio of how many votes were cast in each county for the Libertarian candidate for governor in the last election as documented by the Secretary of State's Office or by a ratio of each counties' population included in that district.

A. If not all or no county affiliates exists. If county affiliates do not exist in all counties within such a district, only Affiliated Counties may make appointments to the Appointments Committee. The Judicial Committee shall timely elect a Chair and Secretary and formulate policies for meeting calls, notifications, member communications, and deliberations.

B. Judicial Committee. The Judicial Committee is the procedural body of the MTLP. The Judicial Committee shall consist of the elected members of the Judicial Committee, or, in the event there is no active or functional elected Judicial Committee, shall consist of any committee or body appointed by the Executive Board or the State Central Committee for the purpose of carrying out one more judicial proceedings.

Section 2. Judicial Committee.

A. Judicial Committee Composition and Election. The Judicial Committee shall be comprised of nine (9) MTLP members elected at a State Officer's Convention to serve as the judicial body of the MTLP. Judicial Committee members shall not also serve on the Executive Board. Judicial Committee members shall serve two (2) year terms until the conclusion of the subsequent State Officer's Convention.

B. Vacancy with Notice. If a Judicial Committee member informs all other members in advance that he or she will be absent from multiple meetings or otherwise unable to adequately perform his or her responsibilities for a specified duration of time equal to or less than 90 days, that member may temporarily vacate the position and resume it at the specified later date. If the office of Judicial Committee Chair or Secretary is temporarily vacant, the Judicial Committee Chair may appoint a replacement, or the remaining members may elect interim officers.

C. Vacancy Without Notice. If a Judicial Committee member resigns, is removed from office, is absent from multiple Judicial Committee meetings, fails to maintain the qualifications of office, or is otherwise unable to adequately perform that member's responsibilities without notice to all other Judicial Committee members, for an unspecified duration of time, or for a specified duration of time to exceed ninety (90) days, that shall constitute resignation and that member's position shall be considered permanently vacated. In the event the Judicial Committee Chair or Secretary office is permanently vacated, the remaining members shall elect new officer(s) from among themselves. If the remaining Judicial Committee members or the Executive Board determines that additional Judicial Committee members are necessary to provide impartial judicial proceeding(s), the State Central Committee shall timely elect additional members at any State Central Committee meeting or convention. Otherwise, such vacancies shall be left unfilled until the next Officers Convention.

D. Removal of a Judicial Committee Member. A Judicial Committee member may be removed for cause following a written complaint to the State Central Committee via the State Chair or Vice Chair by two (2) or more MTLP members. Such Judicial Committee member shall be given notice and a full hearing by the State Central Committee or a body designated by the State Central Committee to review the complaint and recommend action. Failure to respond to this body's written request for information within thirty (30) days shall be considered to mean that the Judicial Committee member in question has vacated the position. The State Central Committee shall vote to either maintain, censure, or remove such Judicial Committee member by two-thirds (2/3) of those present at any duly convened State Central Committee meeting or convention. If a majority of the Judicial Committee determines that allowing the member in question to continue his or her duties during a complaint review process would impede or harm the MTLP, the member in question shall be temporarily suspended from participating in Judicial Committee proceedings.

Section 3. Judicial Procedure.

A. Notice of Complaint and Investigation. Any MTLP member(s) may submit a written complaint to the Judicial Committee specifying the identity and violative action(s) of the accused. Within thirty (30) days of receiving the complaint, a majority of Judicial Committee members present at a duly convened meeting shall make a determination as to whether the accusations contained within the complaint would, if true, justify sanctions. If the Judicial Committee determines that sanctions would not be justified even if all alleged facts are true, the Committee shall provide timely written notice of that finding to the complainant(s) who submitted the complaint. If the Judicial Committee determines that sanctions may be justified, the Judicial Committee shall attempt to timely obtain any evidence required to make a recommendation and shall provide the accused written notice of the complaint, setting forth in detail the nature of the complaint and any supporting evidence gathered at that juncture. If the Judicial Committee fails to timely act as described above, the Executive Board or State Central Committee may form or task another body with the duty of judicial proceedings on the matter.

B. Judicial Committee Investigation. Within three (3) months of receiving a complaint, the Judicial Committee shall hold a hearing. The Judicial Committee shall provide both the complainant(s) and the accused at least two (2) weeks' notice of the hearing date, time, and location. Both the complainant(s) and the accused shall have the right to testify, call other witnesses to testify, and/or to provide evidence at the hearing. Prior to and at the hearing, the Judicial Committee may also choose to seek out and consider additional evidence and witness testimony. The Judicial Committee Secretary shall take notes documenting all evidence submitted at or prior to the hearing.

C. Judicial Committee Recommendations. Upon a simple majority vote of the Judicial Committee members present at any duly convened meeting, the committee shall come to an agreement on a recommendation. The Judicial Committee shall subsequently make a written recommendation to the State Central Committee, which shall be provided to the complainant(s), the accused, and the State Central Committee via the Executive Board, along with the Judicial Committee Secretary's notes relating to the Judicial Committee Hearing and any related documentation or evidence. Pending the State Central Committee's final determination, all interested parties must abide by the Judicial Committee's recommendation. If the Judicial Committee fails to provide a recommendation within four (4) months of the complaint, the State Central Committee or the Executive Board may form or task another body with the duty of judicial proceedings on the matter.

D. Sanctions. The Judicial Committee may recommend the following sanctions: disaffiliating a County Affiliate; requiring the accused to write an apology to any wronged party and/or to any or all MTLP members(s); requiring the accused to pay a monetary fine to any wronged party and/or to the MTLP; requiring the accused to take action(s) to ameliorate by reasonable means the violative action; and/or revoking a member's office or committee position.

D. Final Determination. Within six (6) months of receiving the Judicial Committee's recommendation, the State Central Committee may, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of disinterested parties, impose sanctions on the accused. The State Central Committee may choose to hold a hearing or consider additional evidence. The State Central Committee's imposed sanctions may differ from those recommended by the Judicial Committee. Following the State Central Committee's final determination, there is no appellate process unless otherwise provided by the LP. Failure to abide by the final determination is grounds for further sanction(s).
