Merry Christmas and Season's Greetings from the LPNY!

Fellow Libertarian,

I am writing you today on behalf of the Libertarian Party of New York to wish you and your family a most heartfelt Merry Christmas and best wishes for the new year!

Libertarians embrace the ideal of voluntary giving which is the very spirit of the holiday. May this season find your heart and table full. May you also find yourself in a position to help those less fortunate without government coercion. May we be the change we seek in the world.

I resolve to embrace our new political standing in 2019. We have worked long and hard to arrive here. The biggest challenge will be to create a critical mass of enrolled libertarians. Together we will change the political landscape in New York State. As we move forward we will grow exponentially, form affiliates in every county and run principled libertarian candidates in local elections all across New York State.

This will have been made possible because people like you dared to believe in a libertarian vision that defends the rights of the individual and rejects the use of force to achieve political and social goals.
