| C. | Thank you to Ted Brown for taking over during technology difficulties last meeting |
| D. | Postponed from last meeting to first item of proposals to this meeting: We are at this motion to amend to add in epidemic by Mr. Braiman: The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended even during time of war or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, epidemic, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception. Substitute Motion to be moved by Chair once in order (Chair will not speak to or debate motion, offered as a means of consolidating multiple suggestions and to move things along): 3.2 Internal Security and Individual Rights |

| | The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. We hold that an individual's right of choice and attendant responsibility is absolute, and no real or imagined emergency (whether medical, environmental, military, or other) can be used as a pretext for expanding or concentrating government power, including the suspension or curtailing of the Constitution or Bill of Rights. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended even during time of war. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception. Chair's Suggestion: Move proposal 13 to be considered immediately thereafter as related. |
