Message to LPNY Members and Petition Volunteers

Dear Friends and Petitioning Volunteers,

My name is Jim Rosenbeck. I proudly serve as Chairman of the Libertarian Party of New York, the only party that defends all of your rights all of the time. I am writing today on behalf of the LPNY to thank you for volunteering to make Larry Sharpe the next Governor of NYS. Without your petitioning help this would not be possible.

It isn't a small handful of great petitioners possessing some special skill set that gets this work done. Nor is it the work of paid petitioners. Ballot access is dependent on everyday people like you and I getting up and getting out the door with clipboards in our hands. There is no magic to it. It is just plain hard work and essential to our success.

As we approach the halfway point of this state petitioning campaign, our results have not met my expectations. We frankly need to do better. Consequently I am asking you to join me in making a modest weekly time commitment to insure that we collect a minimum of thirty thousand petition signatures. If we all commit three hours per week for the next three weeks we will succeed. Nine hours of petitioning work at an average of 10 signatures an hour yields 90 signatures. 170 volunteers collecting 90 signatures adds 15,300 signatures to our current total. That is what we need. Can I count on you to join to me in

Fairs, parks, concerts, ballgames, festivals...wherever people gather on public property are built in petitioning opportunities. Here is what I ask from each of us:

- July 27–August 3. Three hours of petitioning (30 signatures)
- August 4–August 10. Three hours of petitioning (30 signatures)
- August 11–August 17. Three hours of petitioning (30 signatures)

Mail in signatures collected at the end of each week. c/o Fred Cole Jr., 1017 Roberta Road, Schenectady NY 12303.

That's it!

The Libertarian Party has the best political message in the world. In order to communicate that message we need candidates like Larry Sharpe on the ballot and petitioners like you and I working all across NYS. Three more weeks, three hours per week. There is nobody else to take our place. Larry Sharpe needs you. I need you. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Jim Rosenbeck
Chair, Libertarian Party of New York
