May 2 and 3: STATE CONVENTION IN COLORADO SPRINGS

May 17 and 18: People's Fair

THE SPRINGS IN MAY

May 2 & 3 will be the week-end to visit Colo. Springs. This area offers a terrific setting for the State Convention which will present exciting speakers at low cost! We'll be meeting at the DRURY INN. The convention will present:

FRIDAY, 7:00PM - Featured speaker, MARSHALL FRTIZ, an advocate of self-government. His humorous, up beat presentations provide a comfortable forum for exploring the principles of freedom. This is the perfect time to introduce family & friends to Libertarianism . . . so bring 'em along.

SATURDAY, 9:00AM - Keynote speaker, Steve Givot will be featured. Steve, a commodities broker from Chicago, ran a professional campaign and received 4% of the vote in a tight Illinois race between Simon & Percy. Concurrent SATURDAY events: (1) Constitutional By-Laws and Platform committees will present updates for the first time in three years, (2) Panels headed by Penn Pfiffner, Mary Margaret and Marshal Fritz speaking on Black Belt Libertarianism.

A banquet will close the convention Saturday night at 8:00. Jim Lewis, VP candidate on the Bergland ticket, will be speaking. Costs are way down. The business sessions on Saturday are free to members.

$29.00 - Before convention
$35.00 - At the door

Saturday night banquet is extra: $20.00 before noon on 5/3/86
$25.00 after noon on 5/3/86

Make checks payable to the Colorado Libertarian Party and mail to the CLP office (2186 So. Holly #207B, Denver, 80222) TODAY!!!!!!

THE "LIBERTY" ON HOLD

Unfortunately, we won't see the "Colorado Liberty" until funds can be raised and volunteers found to put together our paper. A single issue of the "Liberty" costs us approx. $600., and we need your help in order to publish a summer issue. The national paper has taken a new editorial direction with Karl Hess; who is willing to give this same momentum to the "Colorado Liberty"?????

PEOPLE'S FAIR AT EAST HIGH SCHOOL

Colorado Libertarians will have an information booth at the People's Fair (Colfax & Detroit) on Sat., May 17th(10:00-6:00) and Sun., May 18th (11:00-5:00). We'll be sharing with the Fair crowd the principles of Libertarianism and staging a penny-vote for the most UNpopular leader in the last year. Thousands of Denverites turn out for the fair. If you've been waiting to volunteer for a "fun" event, this is the one! Call Doug Anderson (757-8896) to help.
