Subject: Rescheduled State Convention to be Held April 4th via Videoconference

To:

Convention delegates,

The Michigan Libertarian Executive Committee held an emergency meeting this evening to discuss the postponed state convention. The LEC voted to hold their rescheduled national delegate selection convention on Saturday, April 4 at noon via video conference. Our bylaws require us to nominate our national delegates by April 10 and it was felt that any in-person convention would not be feasible until the coronavirus outbreak fears subside. This will be a streamlined business session only convention. We also voted to extend the deadline for affiliates to submit names of additional state convention delegates to March 28 and the 30 day membership deadline will be extended to cover those joining on or before March 5th. While the LPM has a business Zoom account, we will investigate other platforms to see which can best accommodate our agenda needs and will schedule a mock convention to work out the details of holding our first virtual convention.

Details will be made available as they take shape.

Thank you to everyone for your understanding during these unprecedented times.

Stay safe,

Greg Stempfle
