Dear Historical,

I think we can agree. The best way to save a veteran from the hell of PTSD and other post-war issues is to not send them to war in the first place. The Libertarian Party remains the only party dedicated 100% to an anti-war policy. While Republicans are off policing the world, and Democrats are campaigning like peaceful little doves despite consistently funding & entangling us in violent foreign affairs, the members of the Libertarian Party support our troops right here at home, where they should be.

As Veterans' Day approaches, show your support by ordering some anti-war merchandise from our LP Store. Order one for yourself, and order one for the veteran in your life. Use the links below to order today!
